28-Acres of Amazing The Brentwood redevelopment plan envisions a signature destination with an urban feel that will support sustainable lifestyles where people can shop, work, live and play. It will house 1.1 million square feet of retail, 500,000 square feet of office and high-rise residential towers. As a mixed-use, transit-oriented city core, the new Brentwood will be a preferred shopping, leisure and entertainment destination for the region, and an attractive home for residents and businesses with the introduction of new residential and commercial office opportunities. This pedestrian friendly, enclosed and open air retail and residential community has started to unfold, with construction now commenced.
