

38295 View Place, Squamish

$2,479,000

One of a kind home perched atop Hospital Hill with stunning views of Howe Sound, the Chief, and the Tantalus mountain range. This home is situated on a private, south facing lot and offers generous outdoor entertaining areas. In 2019 the home was extensively renovated: highlights include the open concept entertaining space complete with a custom Downsview kitchen, gas fireplace, and vaulted ceilings. The master suite is equally as stunning with panoramic views from the private deck, custom cabinetry, and a soaker tub. Throughout the home you will find heated tile floors and fir windows and trim that add an element of warmth to this modern design. Tucked away above the large two car garage is a renovated legal one bedroom suite. Too many upgrades to list. Viewings by appointment.
