

7231 Rochester Avenue, Chilliwack

$1,050,000

This rare 4 bedroom Rancher has undergone a full renovation from top to bottom. The open concept living space was achieved by removing walls that separated each entertaining space. The kitchen has new Shaker style cabinets, subway tile backsplash, and quartz counters throughout the home. The open living area has a new mantle and electric fireplace with wood detailed floating shelves. The primary bedroom is large and has an incredible ensuite with seamless shower, stunning black hexagon tiled floor and a walk in closet. A garage addition was recently completed and fits 2 vehicles with room for your lawn tools and bikes. The exterior has been completely updated as well to include a covered porch with cedar accents and a paver stone driveway. There is nothing left to do but move in!
