

1903 W 19th Avenue, Vancouver

$5,795,000

A rare find: Character, charm & period details at every turn grace this 5,117 sf 1912 home, situated on a large corner lot in the heart of First Shaughnessy. Towering trees and manicured garden vignettes with extensive stonework provide a warm and welcoming entry. The light filled front entrance reveals original hardwood floors, living room with wood burning fireplace & formal dining room. Both have unique period touches, such as original lead glass windows and original pocket doors. On the main floor, a cozy den, statement powder room with stained glass window live alongside charming French country kitchen which opens through a panel of French doors to a multi-level deck, charming backyard & 2 car garage. Elegant staircases lead from floor to floor. Don't miss it!
