

4246 Watson Street, Vancouver

$1,199,000

Wow! What a location! Located on a quiet street just off Main, this building lot is in the vibrant heart of restaurants, shopping and coffee shops. The building site is excavated and has the foam block foundation forms in place ready for certification. IA.:Architectural Designed Building plans are for an approximately 1600 sqft. modern home with a nice backyard. Property is fenced off but can be seen from the street. This is a great project in a terrific location. Almost shovel ready!
