$5,950,000

The Howard Residence, designed by the award-winning architecture firm Architecture Building Culture, is situated on the desirable and family-friendly Rose Crescent in West Vancouver's Sandy Cove neighbourhood. The 5000 square foot, 4-bedroom, 4.5-bath home sits at the base of a granite cliff, elegantly stretching wide and low across the sprawling lot. Picture windows offer secluded views of the nearby forest and cliff. Balancing the need for privacy and community, this residence warmly welcomes a front garden patio, ensuring that living here is equally about experiencing a personal sanctuary and integrating into the local area. It is the recipient of the 2019 Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia Award in Architecture and was featured in Dwell Magazine's September 2019 issue.
