

1450 North End Rd, Salt Spring

$2,695,000

Nestled along the picturesque shores of Salt Spring Island lies Lakeside Gardens Resort, a captivating property offering a wealth of possibilities.

Positioned on the northern edge of St. Mary Lake, this expansive estate boasts panoramic lake vistas, abundant sunshine, and approximately 700 feet of accessible waterfront spread across 1.91 acres. The centerpiece of the property is a charming 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom principal residence, providing comfortable living quarters amidst the natural splendor. Complementing the main residence is a resort area featuring 13 portable family cabanas, 2 self-contained 1-bedroom cabins, 5 RV sites, and 5 tenting camp sites. The lake itself beckons with opportunities for fishing, sailboating, and swimming, offering endless recreational pursuits for guests to enjoy. The resort amenities include a bathhouse equipped with separate his and hers bathrooms, upper room storage, a dedicated check-in office, and much more, ensuring convenience and comfort for visitors.

With a rich history dating back to 1960 (formerly known as Blue Gables Resort), Lakeside Gardens has established itself as a beloved destination, cherished by a loyal, multi-generational clientele. Offering significant business growth potential, this property presents a rare and enticing opportunity on the island—a chance to own a piece of paradise and continue the legacy of hospitality for generations to come.
