

6720 60th Avenue, Delta

$14,500,000

Currently one of the largest agricultural offerings available in the Lower Mainland and Fraser Valley. This prime 146 acre farm is situated in a high profile location adjacent to the South Fraser Perimeter Road in the Ladner area of Delta. Owned and farmed by a local and long-time Ladner family, this property consists of a single title with a portion of the property situated adjacent to Burns Bog. Laser leveled and actively farmed, this fertile and productive property has significant agricultural potential. Currently leased for the 2024 season. Priced at less than $100,000 per acre this is best opportunity to acquire a large farm property in one of the best growing climates in BC.
