

3756 Salloum Road, West Kelowna

$758,000

Located in the desirable Lower Glenrosa area of West Kelowna, conveniently close to schools (Webber Elementary & Glenrosa Middle); a short drive to the thriving community of West Kelowna; a plethora of shopping, cafes & restaurants galore & year-round recreation possibilities from golfing to skiing & boarding to all the water sport activities that you can wish for. 3756 Salloum has a great view of Okanagan Lake, the valley & the mountains all from the comfort of the wrap-around deck or inside from the kitchen & breakfast nook, the living room picture window. There are 3 bedrooms up, a private two piece ensuite in the main bedroom & a full bathroom in the hallway for easy access. The living room has laminate flooring, a cozy fireplace, views & access to the dining area, & patio doors to the covered balcony & the east side of the deck. The kitchen breakfast nook with stunning views of the lake has a door to the south side of the deck. The deck leads to the covered patio on the west side of the house, storage shed, lawn area & rises to an open plateau on the property's west side that reveals a spectacular view over the roof of the house of lake, valley & mountains. City Planning has advised the owner that they would entertain an application for a second, smaller dwelling unit on the property. Suiting the downstairs is a possibility. This home presents an excellent opportunity filled with potential value in a convenient location while affording a comfortable lifestyle. (id:56120)
