Introducing Cove House; the perfect blend of Deep Cove beach house and West Coast design with south facing ocean views. An incredibly private and flat west facing 7392sqft corner lot, there is no need to compromise between views and outdoor livability with this home. Multiple decks, private garden spaces and open lawn are surrounded by mature trees and loads of west sunlight. Updated over the years, Cove House embodies west coast contemporary architecture with functional, design forward interior spaces. Interior architecture features high-celing living room with wood burning fire place and built-ins, a well appointed and updated kitchen and dining space and private primary suite including french doors and a large ensuite. Live in for years or redevelop in a location that cannot be replaced
