

1339 133a Street, Surrey

$3,299,900

With direct beach access, this iconic designer home sits on one of the most secluded streets off Marine Drive, offering a serene retreat. Nestled on over 1/3 of an acre and backing onto tranquil greenery, this architectural masterpiece invites families to embrace nature and an active coastal lifestyle. The home's sophisticated design is evident the moment you enter, with oversized windows, wide plank flooring, and elegant interior touches. The main level features three bedrooms, a stunning kitchen that opens to the dining and living area with nature as the backdrop. The upper floor boasts a resort-like primary bedroom, while the lower level offers a two-bedroom suite or office space. The outdoor space is nothing short of spectacular, making this South Surrey gem a true lifestyle legacy.
