$3,196,000

Welcome to 4125 Burkeridge Place in West Vancouver. Here we have a fabulous architectural statement sitting at the end of a cul-de-sac in the sub-division of Bayridge. You know modern architecture emphasizes functionality & simplicity. This home gets right to the point. An efficient use of space, open structure & a great floor plan. These owners are the quintessential users of the perfect modern, high end materials & clean straight lines. However, having said that, there is a really nice twist on style once you are inside & it complements the minimalistic design beautifully. This is a quality home with over 5,200 sq. ft on 4 levels. Nearly all of the rooms open to private patios or decks & in turn they take full advantage of this fabulous West Coast setting. We even have some ocean views!
