

10128 Mckinnon Crescent, Langley

$5,688,000

In a private enclave of Fort Langley, a gated drive veils a 6,651 sq/ft modern farmhouse on 4.97 acres of natural beauty. Built in 2020, this six-bedroom home is crafted to endure, offering open living spaces ideal for both family life and entertaining, with a spacious kitchen, wet bar, and large basement with tall ceilings. The master suite is a retreat of its own, featuring a gas fireplace, spa-inspired ensuite with an automated shower and standalone tub, custom oak cabinetry and views east over a quiet ravine. Elegant finishes include oak hardwood floors, Fulgor appliances, and custom shaker-style cabinetry with white oak accents. Seamlessly integrated, the large covered patio with a gas fireplace is perfect for summer gatherings, connecting indoor comfort with the natural surroundings.
