5920 Wallace Dr, Saanich

$1,999,000

Step into a home where timeless Victorian farmhouse design meets modern living. This exquisite property frames the classic charm of a bygone era with contemporary comforts - a truly unique find. Nestled in the Agricultural Land Reserve (ALR), this property offers a sprawling 6+ acres of pastoral land. It's an idyllic setting for those who dream of a peaceful country lifestyle. The property is a blank canvas with many possible uses to suit your lifestyle. Hobby farmers to car enthusiasts will revel in the potential. The home features both rustic pine and patina concrete floors, soaring vaulted ceilings and exposed wood beams — a harmonious blend that echoes the natural surroundings. Designed with social gatherings in mind, this home boasts a spacious kitchen that seamlessly flows into the dining and family room. It's the perfect setup for memorable gatherings, cozy family dinners or grand celebrations. The primary suite is a haven of privacy featuring two private balconies. It's a personal retreat that promises serene views and a peaceful escape from the daily hustle. Each bedroom in this home comes with its own ensuite bathroom, ensuring privacy and convenience for family and guests alike. A covered verandah encircles the home, offering a tranquil space to enjoy the outdoors in any weather. While sipping a morning coffee or enjoying an evening breeze, this is the perfect spot for relaxation. It's a thoughtful feature that adds a touch of luxury to everyday living. With its own hay field, you have the unique opportunity to create farm status, embracing sustainable living. An added bonus is the detached workshop with its own designated driveway, separate from the main house. This is perfect for the woodworker or hobbyist in the family. A large gravel parking pad on site with its own driveway is the perfect spot for storage. Offering a blend tranquility, luxurious comfort and sustainable living. Priced well below assessed value! (id:56120)

KEY INFORMATION

rennie