

5260 Keith Road, West Vancouver

$5,148,000

Presenting The Courtyard House, an iconic testament to West Coast Modernism, blending the timeless vision of Hamish McIntyre with the refined touch of Russell Hollingsworth. Nestled into a granite outcrop in West Vancouver, this 1961 post-and-beam sanctuary unfolds in harmony with its natural surroundings. A Japanese-inspired courtyard rests against rugged stone, balancing dramatic ocean views with intimate garden spaces. A reborn mid-century modern landmark, now remastered, The Courtyard House preserves its heritage while inviting a new chapter. A home rich with legacy and warmth, it now awaits its next custodian.
